DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the oblong shape diffusion factors must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear in claim 1 how the diffusion member may diffuse light if it is opaque.

Clarification is requested. Opaque is defined as: a. Impenetrable by light; neither transparent nor translucent. b. Not reflecting light; having no luster.¹ For the purposes of the prior art rejections following this section, the diffusion member will be interpreted as either a diffusion member or an opaque member.

Art Unit: 2851

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 3-4, 13-14, and 18-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kojima (U.S. Patent No. 5,903,392). Kojima teaches a front projection type screen comprising a transparent base 11, a diffusion member 12 formed on one surface of the transparent base and a retroreflection prism array 13 formed on another surface of the transparent base. A light absorbing member 20 is adjacent the prism array. The diffusion layer is opaque to light from 530-570 nm. Col. 2, line 56 teaches that 14 may be an air layer.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5-12, 15, and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kojima (U.S. Patent No. 5,903,392) in view of Zeira (U.S. Patent No. 5,932,342). Kojima teaches the salient features of the claimed invention except for diffusion along one axis being greater than diffusion along a second axis. Zeira teaches that it was known to provide diffusion along one axis being greater than diffusion along a second axis in a front projection screen. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the features as taught by Zeira for the purpose of controlling the viewing angle and increase gain. The applicant is directed to review col. 1, lines 35-54 for example.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kojima (U.S. Patent No. 5,903,392) in view of Magocs (U.S. Patent No. 5,473,469). Kojima teaches the salient features of the claimed invention except for oblong shape diffusion factors. Magocs teaches that it was known to use oblong shape diffusion factors 17 in the diffusion portion of a front projection screen. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the features as taught by Magocs for the purpose of controlling the viewing angle.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 2 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 17 is allowed.

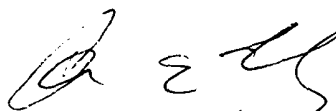

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
